

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Veterinary Teaching Hospital Road Improvements Start Monday

CHAMPAIGN, IL (November 6, 2014) – Pavement, curb, and sidewalk improvements to Hazelwood Drive will require a road closure and route detours near the University of Illinois Veterinary Teaching Hospital beginning Monday, November 10, through mid-December. Once complete, the project will help improve access to the hospital's Large Animal and Small Animal clinics.

DURING CONSTRUCTION:

Small Animal Clinic and Emergency Services

Access will remain available at all times via Hazelwood Drive entering from Lincoln Avenue.

Large Animal Clinic and Emergency Services / Deliveries

Access will be available only from St. Mary's Road, north of the Basic Sciences Building.

Hazelwood Drive Parking Permit Holders

Portions of Hazelwood Drive will remain open for permit holders during construction. These locations and access routes can be viewed on a project map at: <http://www.fs.illinois.edu/projects/major-campus-street-projects>.

NOTE:

Additional construction and wayfinding signage will be placed along Lincoln Avenue and St. Mary's Road during construction to assist with general notification and detours.
